Romance Tips

Tip #1

Sweetheart Scavenger Hunt

Plan an evening of fun and excitement by writing a note to your sweetheart and put it in his or her briefcase, purse, wallet, or leave it in a place sure to be found. Give details of what you want to do with them when they arrive home tonight and have it all ready to go when they walk in the door. Have a scavenger hunt around the house, with you being at the end of the trail waiting in the bedroom or another room for something different. For added excitement call or instant message them at lunch with some provocative conversation to begin the evening of passion before they walk through the door!

Tip #2

Affirmations For Your Sweetheart

It is so easy to focus on the things that we don't like about our significant other. Make a twist this week and do the "Things I love about you" notes. Leave the notes everywhere this week. Example: One thing I love about you is your great smile when you look at me! One thing I love about you is the way you rub my feet after a long day! One thing I love about you is how wonderful I feel when I am walking down the street holding your strong sexy arm! Hide them everywhere for your lover to find -- stashed in their underwear, faxed, e-mailed, or slipped into a book they are reading. Put it in the newspaper, in with their favorite CD, under their pillow, in their lunch and on the mirror if you leave first in the morning. You'll feel like your honeymoon is beginning anew!

Tip #3

As The Weather Is Cooler Try An Old-time Favorite

Put on that special little outfit (or nothing at all), slip that overcoat or winter coat over it and go for a drive that will be exciting for you both. Then reveal your surprise and play to your hearts content. Try a safe but secluded place to play that will give you a chance to play outside (area and weather permitting) for an experience to remember forever. If it is out of your norm, you will appreciate the moment even more. Step out of your comfort zone and plan a new adventure to rekindle that spark that may have been buried or missing for a while. Your partner will be impressed that you were that creative and awe-inspiring.

Tip #4

Schedule Couple Time Away From The Kids

These days it seems that traditional family life is not the norm anymore and regardless of how we feel about that, it's still family. But here is a fun and exciting way to spice things up and get things done without the kids. Get the kids out of the house and the two of you clean house together. Start from one end of the house, go to the other end and meet in the middle for some fun playtime adventure you have never tried before. Or clean house in the nude and as you glance back at each other, for a more teasing effect.

Tip #5

Love Letters In A New And Different Way

Plan an evening when you have an uninterrupted opportunity to spend time together. Make sure you have food and drink to satisfy both your needs. Strip naked and in the next hour or two, you are only allowed to communicate by writing messages on each-others backs, using your finger. There is not to be a lot of time between "chats", as this defeats the purpose of being able to play at the same time.

Tip #6

Soothing Stone Massage

If you have a beach, creek, stream or lake handy, this will be great fun for you! In the theme of a massage, go on a search for small (palm-sized), smooth stones for future massages. While you are out, hold hands, stop to kiss and hug, and while you hug give a soft massage to each on your back. PDA or public display of affection many times will validate to your significant other your genuine desire for them. For enhanced pleasure, warm the stones up by putting them in hot water, dipping them in warm oil or heating them in the oven. Slowly massage each other with the stones. It is an awesome feeling!

Tip #7

Romance Coupons

Send your sweetheart romantic and sexual Valentines that will really make the sparks fly. Make or buy some small Valentines with sweet and fun messages attached like: "Tonight Valentine, you are to do what I please and instructions will follow in small envelopes with numbered step-by-step things to do." Post sweet Valentines in their coat pocket or on the mirror for when they awake. Make Valentines to leave on the dash of the car or in a briefcase -- anywhere will be a fun and new delight for you and your significant other to experience together. Or try creating coupons for future events; "Good For A Massage", "Night Of Passion", "Bubble Bath For 2", etc.

Tip #8

Try Something New

Check with your local Chamber of Commerce for a calendar of community events. Find some activities that you both would enjoy, then plan a day or evening out. Just having a fun day together can spark some new passion in your relationship. Really impress your partner by picking out their favorite thing, even if it is not at the top of your list. Go along cheerfully and reap the benefits of putting your partner's thoughts and feelings first!

Tip #9

Orgasmic White Chocolate Amaretto Fondue

Take 1 lb. of white chocolate. Melt in a double boiler or fondue pot. Add 1/4 cup of Amaretto and stir in for the most orgasmic dipping sauce! Kaluha may be substituted for the Amaretto for a different dessert experience. Serve with strawberries, marshmallows, other fruits or favorite foods for an unforgettable dipping experience.

Tip #10

Sensuous 20 Questions

To start, you need a shoe box. Decorate the box, but leave it empty for now. This is all your love gets to see, then leave it out for them to find and pique their interest. The box will eventually be filled with the items you are going to share in your experience. Now set aside those items to use such as chocolate syrup, noodles, fruit, stones, massage oils, massage tools, things that vibrate, etc. Blindfold your love after some serious kissing and cuddling, then start to use each of the items you have prepared by rubbing or using them on your lover's body. Use warm and cold things to heighten their excitement. After having your lover guess what each of the items are, put them in the special box. You may even bring some finger food to the bedroom for a blindfolded picnic and sensually feed them to your love.

Enjoy!
